Explore more of The Lakes

Welcome to our Summer 2024 Lakes by Bus guide.

Summer is when the Lakes really starts to come to life, with people from all over the globe coming to visit this truly special part of the world. There is a real buzz around the place, and even as visitor numbers start to increase it's still possible to find your own special spot within this magnificent and unique landscape.

Whether you're here for one day or for longer, this guide will give you all the info you need to make your travel around the Lakes sustainable, comfortable and hassle free. Our award winning services will take the stress out of exploring the stunning fells and valleys of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, letting you sit back to enjoy amazing scenery on whichever service you travel on

You can continue to take advantage of the Government's £2 bus fare cap on all of our services within this guide meaning the maximum price of a single ticket is £2.

We've also got our website and app, where you can buy tickets before you travel, or use the journey planning feature which shows you exactly where to get the bus and even where it is along the route.

I hope you enjoy this guide, and have a great trip with us. And on those days when the weather isn't quite playing ball just remember, if we didn't have the rain we wouldn't have the Lakes!

Enjoy.

Sustainable adventures, explore the lakes by bus & boat!

Ditch the car and see more of the lakes from the top deck and from the water.

Visiting for the day or staying for longer, get the most out of your visit with a combined bus & boat ticket.

Our bus & boat tickets offer unlimited bus travel for one day, plus a boat ride in one of the following areas:

-  Coniston
-  Derwentwater
-  Ullswater
-  Windermere

Amazing views guaranteed!;

If you're looking to adventure on Coniston, be sure to catch our 505 service from Ambleside, Hawkshead, Windermere or Kendal into the beautiful village of Coniston. The most notable feature of the area being the Old Man of Coniston. Your Bus & Boat ticket would entitle you to a cruise on the Coniston Launch red or yellow routes. Have more time to spare? You could visit Brantwood, the historic home of John Ruskin situated on the shores of Coniston Water and described fondly as "a paradise of art and nature". You may simply decide to explore the area further by foot with many popular walks available in the area, or perhaps consider hiring a bike.

505
TIMETABLE
PAGES
33-34

A trip on the Ullswater Steamers can offer spectacular views of the Ullswater valley from the water, with regular bus services from Penrith station on the 508 and opportunities to hop on the new 509 and UB1 services operating around the valley. It means exploring sustainably from the comfort of your accommodation couldn't be easier this summer, with a combined bus & boat ticket. Once your cruise is over, you can continue your adventure by foot or by bus. Our 508 service travels as far as Windermere & Bowness, and our 509 service as far as Keswick & Lowther Castle.

If Windermere is where you're most intrigued, a journey on it will certainly convince you of its charm and popularity with visitors. The Windermere bus & boat ticket includes all day bus travel and a single boat journey on the red cruise from Bowness Pier to Waterhead Pier (Ambleside) or vice versa. Why not enjoy the beautiful Lakeland scenery from the open deck of a steamer on Windermere and then hop on the open-top 599 bus from Waterhead Pier (Ambleside) back to Bowness? Our popular 555 and 599 services operate to

Don't overlook a visit to Derwentwater! With the opportunity to hop on and off with your bus and boat ticket, a cruise on Derwentwater is an incredibly special way of discovering the Northern Lake District. Take the 50 minute round boat trip or disembark at one of the eight jetties en-route and take a lakeland walk via well-marked paths to famous landmarks such as Ashness Bridge, Lodore Falls, Grange in Borrowdale, Brandelhow and Lingholm, holiday home of Beatrix Potter. Combine your cruise with an Open Top bus ride on service 78 beyond the shores of the lake further into the Borrowdale valley for stunning views of the fells and great starting points for walks to tick off numerous Wainwrights. For the more adventurous perhaps a trip on service 77/77A 'The Honister Rambler' over one of the most breathtaking mountain passes in the National Park.
