

Our network

How to read this map

- Here's your key to the lines and symbols used on this map
- Baldon
 - Buxton
 - Clifton
 - Castleford
 - Station Name
 - this route is served by Northern trains
 - this line has a limited Northern service, but more frequent trains may be available with other operators
 - Penrith
 - Malton
- Northern trains usually start or finish at stations where the circles are filled in
- trains on this line don't usually stop here, but may call additionally at this station at peak times
- this is an interchange station where you can change easily between two or more lines
- connections are available here for Merseyrail trains, Bee Network trams or Tyne & Wear Metro trains
- Northern trains do not stop here, but this is a key station on a busy line where lots of other trains stop
- no Northern trains stop here, but other operators serve this station

Go do your thing

Map is not to scale and not all stations are shown. Some trains may not stop at all of the stations represented. Check timetables for your station at northernrailway.co.uk